UNITED STATES GIRCUIT COURT.

An Important Suit Against the Government-Dury on silk Crapes. Before Judge Woodruff.

Lottimer & Co. vs. Henry A. Smythe, Ex-Collec tor of the Port .- This action arose under the tariff act of June, 1864. The plaintiffs, who are engaged in trade in this c.ty, imported a quantity of slik crapes. The Collector, under the act in question, levied a duty of sixty per cent upon them, accordlevied a duty of sixty per cent upon them, according to the classification of "dress or piece sitks;" but the planning claimed that the Collector ought not to have classified them as piece silks, inasmuch as crapes are known in commerce as "crapes," and are not known as "siks," and that the proper duty upon the goods would have been lifty per cent and effect the paragraph in the act in retainon to "manufactures of silks not otherwise provided for." The plainings sue for the difference between fifty per cent and sixty per cent. This case was tried about a year ago, when there was a disagreement of the jury. On the present occasion the trial has occupied three days, and it came to a conclusion last evening, the jury finding a verdict for the plainings in the sum of $33s, being the excess of duty which they had paid on the importation.

cess of duty which they had pare on the sum of tion.

This is considered a "test case," the sum of $100,000 depending upon the determination of the question disposed of in the above menomed trial. The result will be regarded with great interest by the importers of this city. The district Attorney may, possibly, make an effort to appear the case to the supreme tourt of the United States; but the feasibility of doing so is not very apparent, considering that nearly all the exceptions on the trial were yuled in his layor.

The Will of Madame Jamel. Bowen vs. Nelson Chase, -This case has been recently removed from the State to the United States Circuit court. It involves matters touching the will of the late Madame Jumel, which have been so frequently reported in the HERALD. Mr. Chauncey Shaffer-with whom was Mr.

Mr. Chauncey Shaffer—with whom was Mr. Chatfield, as counsel for the plantiff—applied to the Court to have a certain day set down for the trial of this case, as there were twenty withesses whom he desired to have in attendance.

Mr. Charles o'Conor, for the defendant, opposed the application, stating that there was no good reason for removing the case from the position which it now occupied on the calendar. The case could be tried when it was reached in its regular order. There were twenty depositions to be read, and in the meantaine all the witnesses could be brought here, he said it was admitted on the other side that certain parties were paying the expenses of the suit with the expectation of sharing in the proceeds if the plantiff was successful, and therefore it would be no hardship on them to oring on the witnesses here and be ready for examination when the depositions were read.

Judge Woodfurd set the case down for the 22d, with the understanding that it would then be taken up it there was no other cause upon the calendar ready for trial.

The Court adjourned till to-day.

SUPREME COUR - LENERAL TERA.

The hiversiae cark Matter. Before Judges Ingraham and Cardozo. The argument in the matter of the Riverside Park was yesterday morning resumed according to adjournment. Mr. O'Gorman, Corporation Counsel, journment. Mr. O'Gornan, Corporation Counsel, had to aght single handed a number of lawyers representing various opposing interest, including besides a large number of private property owners, the Mannattan College. Precisely the same time of arrument was gone over as at the opening of the argument on behalf of other private projectly owners and the New York Central and fluction River Rai road Company, and which, having been fully reported, need not be repeated. After the conclusion of the argument the Court fook the paners, reserving its decision.

Complaint Olemissed Against the Pacific Mail Steamship ( ompany, Before Judge Ingraham.

Charles Luting et al, vs. Progle Mail Stramship Company. - In this case-the facts of which have already been repeatedly published—the Judge yesterday rendered a decision. He says he cannot adopt the conclusion claimed by the plaint is, that the the conclusion claimed by the plaint fis, that the money received by the defendants, or any part of it, was received on behalf of the plaintins. The subscription by Taylor was not, in his view, for the defendants, but for his own benefit, and the checks received by him from the company, now given as the result of a plan to comply with the statule requiring payment of the stock, and not as payment by the company of the stock for their own use. He pronounces the evidence contradictory in some of the main allegations in which the plaintiffs claim rest, but the weight of the evidence is against the supposition that the moneys were pad by defendants for the stock. Whether the new company was or was not properly formed could not create any liability on the part of the deendants to the plaintiffs arising out of these transactions. It was his opinion that that the plaintiffs had failed to make out a case entiting them to recover, and he therefore ordered dismissal of the complaint.

SUPERIOR COURT-GENERAL TERM. Liability of a Check Presented the Day After

Refore Judges Barbour, Monell and Freedman L. Shuster Smith et al. rs. Abruham D. A. Miker .-This is an old suit which has been in the courts for about four years, and having in the course of its legas movements once entered the portals of the Court of Appenis. The main facts of the case are that in November, 1867, the plaintiffs sold to the defendants, who resided in Buffalo, some merchandise, part being paid in cash and the remainder in a draft on parties to this city. The parties upon whom the draft was made gave their check for the amount on the Manufacturers' National Bank, which check was sub-equently returned from the Clearing House unpaid, where it was an inhe day after it was drawn. Suit was orought to recover $2,905, the balance due on the sale. The defence was payment. The case was first tried before Judge McCaun, then before Judge Jones, then went to the Court of Appeals, and again was returned before Judge Jones. A verifict was finally given for the decenants, from which the plaintuits appealed. The case came up on the appeal, and was argued at great length. The Court reserved its decision. The whole question involved sine degree of nability existing upon a check presented for payment the day after it was drawn. The decision of the Court of Appeals is brief and worth giving, in view of its great laportance to business men. It held that the receipt of the draft did not constitute a payment of the Indebteoness of the decendants, but that "when a check is taken instead of money by one acting for others, as was done by the plannths, and delay of presentment for a day or for any time beyond that within which, with proper and reasonable difference in can be presented, it is a perit of the party thus re aming the check and the postponing presentment, as between him and the postponing presentment for a day or for any time bestown: It cannot be presumed to exist without evidence. It was the duty of the plannth for present the check at the bank at least during the day it received it and obtain either the money or a certificate, or leave the same to be protested for non-payment, and not having done so they were characealie with negligence and the consequent loss. By their delay, unless some evidence in explanntion or excuse can be given, they make the check their own, and the defendants were discharged." the draft was made gave their check for the amount on the Manufacturers' National

COURT OF COMMON PL-AS-FRIAL TERM-PART I.

Action for the Less of a Leg. Before Judge Joseph A. Daly. John P. McTerney, an Infant, vs. James Murphy and Hugh Smith.—The plaintiff, a young man of about twenty-three years, orings this suit against the plainting, the proprietors of the Madison avenue the plaintiffs, the proprietors of the Madison avenue stage line, under the following state of facis:—On the night of the 1.th of September, 1664, the plaintiff, then a boy, was returning to the store of his employer, between cight and mine o'clock, after accomplishing some errand, and while attempting to cross from the upper corner of Fulton street to the rear door of Mr. Burke's establishment he saw one of the actison Avenue line of stages conting up Fulton street at a raph rate. It was out of its ordinary route, having gone into Fulton street to avoid a procession which was then passing up Broadway. The boy started to cross the street, and as there were a horse and wagon between him and the curbstone, and thinking that by the raphity of the speed of the approaching stage he would not have time to effect his purpose before it would come on him, he turned to retrace his steps, and just as ne was stepping upon the curb, going backwards, the stage struck atm and broke his leg, which was subsequently amputated by Dr. Sands, at the New York Haspital, in consequence of which he is obliged to use an artificial leg, and he suffers acute pain in the manned member.

The testimony in the case was closed on Monday.

onger to use an arrowal leg, and the states settle part in the manned member.

The testimony in the case was closed on Monday, and one of the jurors being seek yesterday add defendant's counsel refusing to go on without a util jury, the case west over. High-Hannes , receding by a City Marshal.

Joseph Planchard vs. William C. Cott.—The plaintiff is a Frenchman, doing business in human hair in Canal street, and hire I his premises from the defendant Cost. In the month of October, 1870, M Planchard received two letters from Mr. Colt's wife. Pianchard received two letters from Mr. Colt's wife, notifying him not to pay the rent to any one but her. In accordance with this notification the plaintal pair her the rent for one mortin getting her receipt, and a few days thereafter on: of the city hiarshale, accompanied by four men, came and o, cered plaintal from the premises, destroying a large port on of ms property, and subjecting his wife to great suffering. One of the civil justices, on being made acquainted with the facts came on the scele and revoked the warrant on the ground of frand, but the over zealous marshal still insisted on carrying it into exacution, and was only deterred from using so by the interposition of a strong force of police under Captain Cameron. There was no defence, and the Captain Cameron. There was no defence, a july awarded the plaintid $5,000 damages.

Action of Allered Sunder.

Thomas Breen es. Solomon Rich.—This was an action for stander. The piaintiff kept a boot and snoe store in Eighth avenue, leasing from the defendant. After he had been in occupation of the premises some montes a fire occupation of the premises some montes a fire occurred, and he claims that in consequence of sanderous words spoken against atm by the defendant, to the e..ext that he (plaintiff) had set his store on irc, he had great officulty in secting up with the insurance companies or to obtain further insurance after he had atted up his store. Case still on.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS-SPECIAL TERM.

More vs. Round.—Motion granted without costs,

COURT OF GENERAL SE SIDNS.

A Garreter Seut to the State Prison for Eight Years by Judge Bedford-The Hagerty and Baul h Aileged Voucher Burglary-Acquittuls.

At the opening of the Court yesterday Louis Len pard, who pleaded guilty last week to robbery in the first degree and was remanded for sentence, was placed at the bar.

Jusge Goodlet made a fervent appeal for mercy in view of the prisoner's previous good character. Judge Bedford said:-You were jointly indicted for reboery in the first degree. Your associate in crane was convicted and the jury recommended him to mercy. I respected that recommendation, and consequently sentenced him to the lowest penalty known to the law; but the case, if I be dot in error, demonstrated the fact that you were much more guitty of the two; that you actually roused tuts man. It was a clear case of garroting. A gentleman, at three occock in the morning, in one of the upper streets of the city, was assaulted by you and another person and sagged and roused. I cannot conceive how persons supposed to be respectable could swear to your good character. The community and gentlemen at high must be protected against the assaults of prowling ruthans, and as an example I shall send you to the State Prison for eight years.

THE ALL-GED BURGLARY IN THE COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE—REMARKS OF HAGERTY AND BAULCH'S COUNSEL.
The business of the Court was suspended at noon for a few moments to permit the counsel for Hagerty and danken, now under indictment, charged with steamy voiciness from the Comptroller's office, to make a personal state ment. He sand that the newspapers scenical to deligat from day to day in publishing laise Statements in reference to the case of Hagerty and manich. They were indicted on the lath of October, nearly six weeks after their mearceration; but as the Grand jury was supreme in its action no blame could be attached to the District Automey for not naving the instinct Automey would give the counsel noice when to sphear octore the Court and make a motion for bail. In consequence of the election and in view of the District Automey's engagements at the matter would be laid over unto his return. The course wished to be protected from the monations of the press. He asked his Honor to set the case town for Friday next, when he would make a motion to quash the matter ment and admit the prasor est to bail. When the case came before the Court it would be laid over ment and admit the prasor est to bail. When the case came before the Court it would be long at with resonation, vigor and courage.

Assistant District Alforney Fallows said that District Automey Garyin and excassive charge of the case, and that it would be tadelicase in him to have the day for the arguments.

The counsel said that an important question would come up in this case, Viz., whether a Grand Jury of this con your fallows and that the newspapers, like so many demonstration that the newspapers, like so many demonstrations and the later and counterance became vis or—and, with a quiet nod, suggested that the mo-ion might be made on Monday.

Judge SEDFORD said he would hear it at that time. George Eilison, who on the 4th of July sfole a waten from techna Lawrence, worth $20, was contracted of petty largeny, and sent to the Fentientiars for three months.

Anthony Schlessinger pleaded guilty to a simple assaut upon Jacob Solomon, and judgment was suspended.

Henry Seaman, who was charged with stealing a horse and wagon on the 15th of October, belonging to Charles Eowers, was acquitted.

William Johnson, charged with assault with intent to steal, as a pickpocket, from 4 woman in the Central Park, was tried and found not guilty.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS.

First Appearance of Shandley, With His sociate, After Election- | Shot for a Police Sergeaut-A German Sent to the Penitestiary for Twelve Months for Indecently Assault'ng a Child.
For the first time since the day the Tammany ship was stranded on the rocks of political reform, and when mainmast, rigging and even the old venerated flag which has so frequently and defaulty floated over the old Wigwatt were, apparently, all thrown over to the raging elements, the Associate Judges of Special Sessions met resterday for the transaction of business. Shandley, who arrived at about halt-past ten o'clock, did not appear quite so lated and broken-down as some of his enemies had stated, and it was evident from the number of persons who surrounded him, anxious for a friendly grip, that he still had a good many sympathizers and would-be supporters. Still there was a marked grip, that he still had a good many sympathizers and would-be supporters. Still there was a marked difference in his exterior. While endeavoring to banish from his mind the events of the past fortnight, by a speedy return to his duties as a magistrate, it was evident from the manner in which he spoke and acted that THE "Soreness of defect, and all the puns of his more animated colleague, and the judicial interlineations of sarcasm, so to sheak applied at all times and in all cases by the "Chief," did not adpear to afford much relief. Everybody seemed glad to see him. Even the regular loafers orightened up at the state of the junior beak, and evinced considerable sympathy for him—more probably for the pecunitary loss he sustained than for the loss of the office of Register.

Thirty-two cases were presented for trial, which, considering the close proximity to the election, could not be considered as a heavy calendar.

Leon P. Philips was charged by Officer Fitzgibbens, of the elighteenth precipet, with assaulting him on the night of the election. From the evidence it appeared that Phillips went into the station house for the purpose of as crtaining how the returns were commig in. Sergoant Loonic, late of the Twenty-second precipit, was standing behind the desk, and, without any cause and at a signal from the tormer, Fitzgiobons endeavored to "rush" him out. The decendant caugot hold of the officer's clothes to prevent himself from the station house arrested him.

The senior Judge said it appeared to him that the whole affair was occasioned by the disgraceful and disorderly state of the station house. The whole bis he should be piaced upon Sergeant Loonie, who was not fit to be a doorfreeper on send an occasion. The station house was in a state of choos, people were admitted in discriminately, and what else but disturbance could result from such a state o. aliants! Loonie was not a competent man, totally unit for his position.

Loonie was not a competent man, totally until for his position.

Harry Paimer, of Niblo's Garden, charged Martin Loonie with defacing a number of bills which he had ordered to be posted up on a leace near Ninth street. The defendant was caught in the act of pasting some other bills over those the being in the incrative business of bill posting; already there relative to the complainant's theatre and for which a special arrangement had been made. Mr. Palmer said that as he had discovered the man was very poor and had given his word that he did not know he was posting on "special" space he would not press the charge, although the prisoner had pleaded quity. The Court said they should suspend sentence; but, as it was a femicinary offence, it he was ever brought up before them on any similar charge the full penalty of the law would be meted out to him.

Assaulting a Giel ten Years old.

was ever or or the law would be meted out to him.

ASSAULTING A GIFL TEN YEARS OLD.

Thomas Bauman, who keeps a grocery store in Orchard street was charged by Elizabeth Colum, a little girl, ten years of age, with assaulting her. The complainant stated that she went into defendant's store on attrust, for some articles for her mother, when he called her behind the counter and indecently assaul ed her. She had been in the store a great many times and knew Bauman periocity. The defence stated that this was a case gotten up by the child first and then developed by the parents afterwards for the purpose of obtaining money from Banman, who was not to be so easily swindled.

The child was brought up to the bench and closely examined by the Court; but she simply reiterated the statement which had appeared on the records previously.

The Court—We have carefully examined the child and cross-examined her, and we do not find that she differs in any way now from the statement in the amidavit. We have stadies the matter, and cannot conceive how this pure libble girl sould possibly concoct such a tale if there was not the actual fact to base it upon, and afterwards adhere trushfully to it. To acquit the man would therefore be to throw unjust odium upon the child and her parents. We have decide to send the prisoner to the Pententiary for twelve cale dar montas. Such, therefore, is the sentence of the Court.

The Court adjourned at twelve o'clock.
